

EDUARDO ERNESTO TESECUM

CONTACT INFORMATION

Dr. Eduardo Ernesto Tesecum
PAWS Veterinary Clinic
Joseph Andrews Blvd.
San Ignacio, Cayo, Belize
+501-601-3275
Email:

EXPERIENCE

2003 -present

Registered Veterinary Surgeon, licensed to practice in Belize

2010 to present

BAHA: Belize Agricultural Health Authority
Veterinary Officer and Country Coordinator for Classical Swine Fever

2010 to present

ISIS: Institute for Sustainable International Studies, San Ignacio, Belize

- Faculty Associate teaching course on Veterinary Practices in the Tropics. This course focuses on large farm animals and is primarily a field course.

2003-Present

Own and manage PAWS, a private veterinary practice San Ignacio, Cayo

- Work with farmers to develop good animal management practices to assist them in making their businesses successful
- Provide medical care to livestock in Belize
- Farm consultant for farms (Example: Tiger Run Farms, Ltd.)
- Consultant for Humane Societies in Belize City, Belmopan, Placencia and San Ignacio
- Provide pro bono health care to needed animals in these areas

2006 – 2010

Galen University, San Ignacio, Cayo District, Belize, C.A.

Course Director in Animal Science Intensive Field program in Belize (Livestock) for summer program

2005-2006

The Belize Zoo & Tropical Education Centre

- Supervision of workers.
- Veterinary medical programs & management of animal collections
- Worked with other NGOs on various conservation projects

2003 – 2005

Food Safety Officer, Belize Agricultural Health Authority

- Manager of food safety programs.
- During this time was pursuing a Specialization in Food Safety

2002–2003

Cuban State Farm, Havana Province, Cuba

Swine, Aquaculture, Bovine Field Practice

Universidad Agraria de la Habana

Duration of field practices: 4 months.

- Technology, Organization and Control of production based on the principles of production.
- Management, housing, equipment and their interrelationship. Health and Nutrition relationship.
- Requirements and Organization of the reproduction aspects and its interrelationship with management and health.
- Preventive Medicine of principal diseases that afflict different farm animal.
- Bio-protection (human) and Environmental Protection.

Volunteer Activity:

2003 – present: Work with Humane Societies across Belize

2008- 2009 Secretary of the Board of Directors Bullet Tree Water Board

EDUCATION

- | | | |
|----------------|---|-----------------------|
| 1989–1992 | Eden S.D.A. High School | Santa Elena, Cayo |
| ■ | High School Diploma in Academic Studies. | |
| 1992–1994 | Belize College of Agriculture | Central Farm, Cayo |
| ■ | Associate Degree in Agricultural Science. | |
| 1996–2003 | Universidad Agraria de la Habana | Havana Province, Cuba |
| ■ | D.V.M., Doctor in Veterinary Medicine. | |
| 2003 – present | Various workshops & conferences on Animal Health and Conservation | |

INTERESTS

Anything that I can do in the fields of animal agriculture and wildlife conservation. My goal is to help equip the people of Belize to meet changes and challenges and develop a sustainable approach to agriculture and wildlife. I also want to help the animals of Belize by providing veterinary care and organizing free veterinary events, such as spay/neuter clinics.